

Co-President (one-year term):
Peggy Stecker

Peggy is a graduate of the University of Illinois, with a degree in Speech Communication. She and her husband, Aaron, have three children. Two of their children attend Vanderlyn Elementary -- Ben is in third grade and Nina is in fourth grade. Their oldest son, Adam, is in the seventh grade at Peachtree Charter Middle School.

After graduation, Peggy worked in the advertising and production industry. She worked for Rich's department store as a production assistant working on radio and television ad campaigns. Later she worked for Coca-Cola on both industrial and commercial films. While in production, she discovered that the field of cosmetology is where her professional career would flourish. At that time she went back to school to earn a degree in Cosmetology.

The Stecker family has been involved at Vanderlyn since September 2002 and Peggy has been active in many areas of the school. From serving as a Room Parent to being on a variety PTA committees including the Directory, Publicity and the Out door sign. While our fourth grade class spent a semester at Montgomery, she was co-liaison for Vanderlyn. She has also served as a member of the Vanderlyn PCIC board for 2 years. At PCMS Peggy has been a monthly volunteer in the Attendance office and helped with both a Band booster and Drama club fundraiser.

Co-President (two-year term):
Kevin Cameron

Kevin is a graduate of Indiana University (quantitative business analysis) and the University of Southern Maine (biology). He has two daughters -- Samantha is in third grade at Austin Elementary and Alexandra is in seventh grade at Peachtree Charter Middle School.

Kevin has worked as a "domestic engineer" since 2000. Prior to this career, Kevin worked for in the financial software industry. The clients Kevin worked with were government agencies and major corporations. Through the years, responsibilities included software development, client installations, systems analysis, software training and management of projects.

Kevin has had a child at Austin since March 2003. He has been active in many areas of the school, serving as a room parent, recycling coordinator, chair of the Dunwoody Dash committee (2007), and on the Austin School council (2007-09).

Kevin has represented Austin on the Dunwoody Cluster Council since 2008 and has been one of two parent representatives from Austin on the Advisory Council for the new Dunwoody 4/5 school. As part of the 4/5 Advisory Council, Kevin has been chair of the Communications Sub-Committee. He was requested to serve on the selection committee for the principal for the Dunwoody 4/5 School.

Kevin is involved with the Dunwoody-Chamblee Parents' Council. He has volunteered to help with many projects at Austin, Peachtree and Dunwoody High School, such as cookie dough sales for the PCMS bands, merit trade-in at PCMS, attendance office volunteer at PCMS, copy room parent at Austin and Dunwoody Dash committee (2009) at Austin.

Kevin is currently working with the DHS Cross Country coach to develop a local 5k course for the cross-country team. He serves as co-manager of Alex's Concorde Fire U13 soccer team and has coached several of his daughters' soccer teams at Dunwoody Baptist. Kevin is an avid runner and just started training for his 14th marathon.

VP Ways & Means (one-year term): Marian Sheffield (C)

Marian is a graduate of Auburn University with a degree in Accounting, and she is a CPA. During her professional career she worked in the accounting and tax fields for various companies including; Habif, Arogeti & Wynne, Portman Properties, The Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, Australian Body Works, and Tatum Partners. In 2007 she retired from the work force to focus on her family and volunteering more time at Chesnut. Marian is married to Don and they have two boys who attend Chesnut. Alex is in the 4th grade and Austin is in the 3rd grade.

Prior to her boys entering Chesnut, Marian served for four years on the Board of Directors at the Peachtree Presbyterian Child Development Center. Since the boys entered Chesnut. Marian has been involved at the school in various areas. She has served as treasurer of the PTA for two years, a representative on the Chesnut Charter Council for two years, room parent for five years, co-chaired the Sally Foster fundraiser for one year, and volunteers in the class room when needed. Marian has represented Chesnut on the Dunwoody Cluster Council and on the Advisory Council for the new Dunwoody 4/5 school. Her role on the Advisory Council has been chair of the Instructional Delivery Model Action Team. Marian has also volunteered teaching Sunday School and Vacation Bible School in her church.

VP Communications & Programs (one-year term):
Paige Ratonyi

A graduate of Duke University, Paige worked in the technology industry for more than ten years as a Strategic Analyst for IKON Office Solutions and a Systems Consultant for Xerox Corporation, crafting document management outsourcing solutions for business clients. Paige left the work force in 2005 to focus on her family. Paige and her husband, David, have two boys who attend Chesnut Charter School. Reed is in the 3rd grade and Casey is in the 1st grade.

Since leaving the corporate world, Paige has volunteered in many different ways at Chesnut. Paige is currently serving the second year of her term as PTA Co-President at Chesnut. In addition, she has served on the Chesnut Charter Council, the Assessment Action Team, and as Room Parent. Paige is also currently serving on the PTO Action Team for the 4/5 School.

Secretary (one-year term):
Kim Fobas

Kim grew up in the Dunwoody area attending Dunwoody Elementary and Dunwoody High School. She graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in Education. Kim and her husband, Shawn, have two children at Austin Elementary – Jackson, who is nine, and Emma Grace who is in kindergarten.

Prior to children, Kim managed a Staffing company where she was in charge of five internal staffers as well as over 150 employees.

Kim has volunteered at Austin in the Media Center and her children's classrooms. She also has served on the Mill Glen board for three terms, and on occasion has filled in for the Secretary. She is known for her organization and fairness.

Treasurer (one-year term):
Kim McGeorge

Kim has a degree in accounting and French from the University of Richmond. She also has a Masters in Taxation from Georgia State University, and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). She and her husband make their home in Dunwoody with their four children.

After graduation, Kim worked for Price Coopers in Virginia, Peat Marwick in Atlanta and then GH&I in Atlanta. She spent several years in audit before moving into tax where she became a Manager in their tax practice.

Since having children, Kim has been at home full-time and is an active volunteer. She put her accounting skills to work at Austin, serving their PTA as both Financial Secretary and Treasurer.

In addition, Kim has served as an advisor for her sorority, volunteered in a soup kitchen, and worked with Junior Achievement. She is a very active volunteer with her church, particularly in the Children's Ministry. Kim has been a room parent at Austin for five years and leads a large Daisy troop.

Financial Secretary
(two-year term; becomes Treasurer in year two):
Richard Starks

Richard currently has two boys attending Vanderlyn Elementary -- Adam who is in Pre-K, and Jacob who is in the third grade. He is an active volunteer at Vanderlyn -- including .Jump Rope for Heart, Field day, Fall Fun day, Test Proctors, and various classroom events.

Most recently Richard participated on the Cultural Arts committee to help expand cultural programs at Vanderlyn. He has also coaches youth soccer and teaches Sunday school.

Professionally, Richard provides IT training and support and serves as a corporate Controller.